

WORKSHOP ON “PROPOSALS FOR SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION IN MEXICO CITY. THE EXPERIENCE OF THE CITY OF BEIJING”

Goal: to analyze the experience of the City of Beijing on Science, Technology and Innovation (ST&I) to allow for such a process in Mexico City and of relevance for the Mexico City Government (GDF) and its Secretary for Science, Technology and Innovation (SECITI), considering also the sisterhood agreement that both cities signed in October of 2009. Of particular relevance are the evaluations and performance of programs developed in the last 2 decades and recently established priorities.

Place and date: Unidad de Seminarios Dr. Ignacio Chávez, “Vivero Alto”, Ciudad Universitaria, Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM), Mexico City. Monday, April 21st, 2014.

Language: English (without translation)

Program (April 21st, 2014)

- 9.30-9.45 Welcome Remarks (Dr. René Drucker, Secretary SECITI)
- 9.45-9.50 Goals of the Workshop (Dr. Enrique Dussel Peters, Coordinator Cechimex)
- 9.50-10.00 Coffee break
- 10.00-11.30 ST&I in China and Beijing
- ST&I in China. Dr. Mingjie Ma (Deputy Director General of Department of Techno-economy, Development Research Center of the State Council)
- ST&I in Beijing. Mr. Shaofeng Yang (Program Officer for Sci-Tech Innovations, Beijing Municipal Commission of Science and Technology)
- ST&I in Beijing. Dr. Sha Chen (Vice Dean of Environmental Science, Beijing University of Technology)
- 11.30-12.00 Q&A
- 12.15-12.30 Coffee break
- 12.30-14.00 Experiences and new goals of ST&I in Mexico City. Reflections and discussion
- Initial remarks for general exchange and discussion: 1. SECITI, 2. Dr. José Luis Solleiro (CCADET/UNAM), 3. Dr. Leonel Corona Treviño (FE/UNAM), 4. Dr. Lourdes Álvarez Medina (FCA/UNAM), 5. Dr. Enrique Dussel Peters (Cechimex/UNAM).
- 14.00-15.30 Lunch